THE POWER OF NEW THINKING

WLA recognizes the work of outstanding women in the field of law with its Award for Prominent International Woman Lawyer.

The WLA Prominent International Woman Lawyer Award will be presented at the WLA2023 DUBAI on 27th April 2023.

This prestigious award nominates and recognises leading women from each country who have demonstrated excellence in their field, influenced other women in legal careers, championed the rights and advanced opportunities for women in law.

Selection and Award Criteria

The WLA Women in Law research team selects each finalist after a thorough research process based on direct submissions. The Selection Committee will review each nomination for the Awards, shortlist the finalists, and select the winner in each country.

How can I nominate?

Nominations can be submitted for yourself or another individual via our Nomination Form. Women Lawyers who possess any of these may nominate themselves or others for this award.

- Consistent and exceptional performance in the field of law, consistently demonstrating a high level of knowledge, skill, and professionalism.
- Demonstrated leadership and mentorship, including contributions to professional development of women in law and support of diversity and inclusion efforts.
- Contributions to the legal field, including the development of new laws, policies, or programs that benefit the community or contribute to the advancement of justice.
- Service to the community, including pro bono work, volunteering, or charitable contributions that directly impact the lives of others.
- Engagement in continuous professional development and learning, including participation in legal conferences, workshops, and other educational opportunities.
